

Chuck Eilenberger

The Eilenberger name is well established in the Rogue Valley. Chuck has cemented his name into the list of great bowlers from this area. A member of the Medford Hall of Fame, he has numerous All Star Titles and Senior All Star Titles and a SO Masters Title as well. Chuck is one of those bowlers who excel at “crunch” time. He is one of the best at making the shot when it counts. He retired from a long career at Boise Cascade in 2009, and now has time to focus on keeping his game at a high level.

The Southern Oregon All Stars and Senior All Stars are proud to have this legend in both organizations.
